

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Research commission “potential unintended consequences of decarbonisation technology and how could these be mitigated” MSc projects -update Panel input to PIC’s annual review on the SG’s progress towards meeting their child poverty targets ➤ April meeting 	Kirsten & Roanna Kirsten Philippa & Roanna Matt
The main focus of the afternoon will be the Warm Homes Prescription Trial with three of the key players attending. (We expect Rose Chard, Rebecca Sweeney & David Mackay to be there throughout, with Jillian Evans leaving after the first session. We are hoping that someone with lived experience will also attend to give their perspective). There is also a planned photo shoot with Matt, Rose, David and Jillian.
14:00-14:30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • NHS Grampian <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – the trusted party the first contact – how this worked –, the legacy 	Jillian Evans - Head of Health Intelligence and Divisional General Manger, Public Health, NHS Grampian
14:30-15:30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • SCARF <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - a key partner – assessing needs - what you brought to this as a local organisation - the legacy? • The experience of those with lived experience of fuel poverty who benefited from the Warm Homes Prescription Trial - possibly someone with lived experience attending or their voice mediated by David et al. 	David Mackay – CEO of SCARF
15:30 - 17:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Catapult <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - overview of the WHPT, benefits to date - the particular learnings for Scotland (63% of the trial cohort were from Aberdeen/the surrounding area) - scaling up the pilot – what might this mean/need in the Scottish context? 	Rose Chard – Fair Future Programme Lead at Energy Systems Catapult Rebecca Sweeney – Living Lab Business Leader, Catapult
17:00 – 18:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Panel Reflections on the afternoon & Panel business 	All

19th March 2024 – 9:30-12:30

TIMINGS	ITEM	PARTICIPANT(S) INTRODUCING ITEM
09:00 – 10:00 Breakfast will be bought en route to AB1 to manage costs	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Overview of the Wick Heating project (heat network) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - how the business model works/who supports it - how the scheme helps those in, or in danger of being, in fuel - what the demand is for the service - how the Local Heat Energy Efficiency Strategy is helping 	Matt Baker - Growth Officer for Gren Energy Ltd (owners of Ignis Wick Ltd) (by 'phone)
10:00 – 11:00	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Aberdeen Heat & Power <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - overview of AH&P - the business model and the challenge of decarbonisation - how the Local Heat Energy Efficiency Strategy is coming together and how it will support a reduction in fuel poverty – Directors' perspective 	AH&P + Panel Jennifer Ritiche – Business Manager + 2 Directors: Jean Morrison & Councillor Sandra Macdonald
11:00 – 11:15	BREAK	All
11:15-12:30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Panel business 	Panel
12:30 –13:30 Lunch will be delivered to AB1, 48 Huntly Street, Aberdeen	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Lunch and Panel reflections 	All